

AWAKENING FESTIVAL 2010

Volunteer Guidelines & Work Disclaimer

Awakening makes every effort to share the Love of Christ with hundreds of people each year that would perhaps never see the inside of a church. By choosing to make a commitment of your time you will be helping the festival continue to be an exciting tool that God uses each year to bring people closer to Him. The Awakening is not created by a small group of people; it takes the hearts and minds of several hundred volunteers and coordinators to work together each year. The combined effort of all those involved is how an Awakening truly happens. Thanks for helping. We appreciate your willingness to be here and to be a part of Awakening 2010!

We've included a list of guidelines below which will help you to assist us in the best way possible. If you have any questions, please see your area leader.

1. You must commit to giving your best to the glory of God. Remember, festival attendees see you as the face of Awakening.
2. You must check in with your leader 15 minutes before your shift. Report to your area on time and go directly to your area leader. The leader in your area will be wearing a badge.
3. You must commit to working your assigned shifts and must not leave your area without being replaced or being excused by your leader.
4. Be respectful to the leaders and to the other staff members.
5. No illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages or smoking of any kind are allowed on festival grounds.
6. Lost and found items are to be taken to the merchandise tent.
7. Lost children should be taken to the first aid station or to a security staff member or leader. Security staff and leaders will be wearing security t-shirts.
8. Be helpful and friendly to all festival attendees. If someone comes to you with a question, please do your best to help them and if you don't know the answer, have them see your leader.
9. Keep yourself hydrated by drinking plenty of water.
10. Smile and have a great time!
